DIRECTORS' REPORT

REVIEW OF OPERATIONS

Apurimac Iron Ore Project (Peru)

(Strike – 80%)

Strike's Apurimac Iron Ore Project in Peru is recognised as one of the highest-grade, large-scale magnetite projects in the world with the potential to support the establishment of a significant iron ore operation.⁵

Strike has previously completed two shipments (to Chinese and South American Steel Mills) of high-grade (+65% Fe) Apurimac Premium Lump shipping iron ore (DSO) in 2021.⁶

Development of Apurimac advanced during the financial year in the following key respects:

- (a) In July 2024, the Peruvian Government formally approved the viability study for the proposed Andahuaylas-Marcona Railway Project.⁷ This transformative infrastructure initiative is designed to connect the Apurimac mining region directly to the new Marcona Port Terminal on Peru's southern coast. The railway, estimated to cost US$8 billion, is intended to be delivered under a Government-to-Government (G2G) framework and is scheduled for construction commencement between 2026 and 2027, with completion targeted by 2032.

The Marcona Port Terminal, awarded to Terminal Portuario Jinzhao Perú S.A. under a US$405 million concession, is expected to have a freight capacity of 40 million tonnes per annum. The Apurimac Project has been identified by the Peruvian Government as a potential foundation customer for this port, with the capacity to contribute up to 20Mtpa – approximately half of projected throughput.
- (b) Strike actively engaged with key Peruvian Government agencies throughout the year, including the Ministry of Energy and Mines, the Ministry of Transport and Communications (MTC), and ProInversión (Peru's Investment Promotion Agency).⁸ Key outcomes from the engagements included:
 - Submission of a formal Letter of Intent to MTC expressing Strike's interest in participating in the railway project and commencement of discussions on a Memorandum of Understanding to define Strike's role in the development and operation of the infrastructure⁸;
 - Detailed engagement with ProInversión, including discussions on funding models, phasing, and coordination with other stakeholders; and
 - Early-stage discussions with Terminal Portuario Jinzhao Perú S.A., the concession holder for the Marcona Port, to explore long-term port access and integration of logistics infrastructure.
- (c) Strike initiated the permitting process for a full Mining Permit for Apurimac, to be underpinned by a Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA).⁹ A tendering process was launched to appoint consultants to undertake baseline environmental, social, and technical studies.⁸
- (d) Community engagement remained a core focus, with Strike sponsoring the Apurimac Business Leaders Forum and conducting stakeholder workshops to address local needs, including infrastructure and agricultural support.¹⁰ However, civil unrest in the region during the June 2025 quarter – triggered by reforms to the REINFO registry governing informal mining – led to temporary suspension of non-essential field activities to ensure the safety of personnel and contractors. Strike continues to monitor the situation and remains committed to resuming operations once conditions stabilise.⁸
- (e) Strike participated in the 2025 APAC Steel & Iron Ore Industry Conference in Perth, engaging with Chinese steel producers, infrastructure developers, and investors.⁸ These discussions highlighted growing interest in Apurimac's high-grade, low-impurity iron ore, particularly in the context of global decarbonisation efforts. Preliminary discussions regarding offtake agreements, joint ventures, and project-level investment are ongoing.

Lithium Energy Limited is an ASX-listed battery minerals company.

On 30 April 2024¹¹, Lithium Energy announced the sale of its 90% interest in the Solaroz Lithium Brine Project in Argentina (where a JORC Indicated and Inferred Mineral Resource of lithium has been delineated¹²) (Solaroz) to a subsidiary of CNGR Advanced Materials Co Ltd (Shenzhen Stock Exchange Code: 300919) (CNGR) for US$63 million (~A$97 million¹³) cash. On 6 December 2024¹⁴, Lithium Energy announced amended Solaroz sale terms (with completion in two tranches (39.9% in April 2025 and 50.1% in January 2026) and with no change to the total cash consideration). Lithium Energy shareholders approved the proposed sale of Solaroz at a general meeting held on 8 August 2024 (in respect of the original sale agreement) and on 15 January 2025 (in respect of the amended sale agreement). On 30 April 2025, Lithium Energy received US$26 million (~A$40 million) on completion of Tranche 1 (39.9%)¹⁵ - Lithium Energy has received a total of US$33.8 million (~A$52 million) (including deposits¹⁶) in respect of the Tranche 1 sale. Tranche 2 (50.1%) is due to be completed on 9 January 2026 with Lithium Energy due to receive US$21.7 million at that date with a further US$3 million held in escrow for a year and US$4.5 million potentially payable if the Benchmark Lithium Carbonate Price exceeds US$23,000/tonne averaged over any 4-month period beginning from the completion of Tranche 1 and ending 12 months after the completion of Tranche 2 (i.e. between 29 April 2025 and 8 January 2027)¹⁴.

On 3 April 2024, Lithium Energy and NOVONIX Limited (ASX:NVX) (NOVONIX) announced the merger of their adjoining Burke and Mt Dromedary Queensland Natural Graphite Deposits into Lithium Energy subsidiary, Axon Graphite Limited (Axon Graphite), which proposed to undertake a $15 to $25 million initial public offering (IPO) and seek admission to ASX as a dedicated vertically-integrated mine to Battery Anode Material (BAM) product manufacturing company. The Burke and Corella Graphite Projects (LEL:100%) in Queensland, Australia, contains high-grade JORC Indicated and Inferred Mineral Resources of graphite.¹⁷ Lithium Energy's spin-out of Axon Graphite was approved by shareholders at a general meeting held on 7 February 2025¹⁸. In July 2025, Lithium Energy and NOVONIX announced that, in light of prevailing market conditions and following consultation with the lead manager, they have determined not to proceed with the IPO of shares in Axon Graphite.¹⁹ On 25 September 2025, Lithium Energy announced that it had acquired a 100% interest in the Mt Dromedary Project from NOVONIX in consideration of $2 million cash and was reviewing various alternative funding strategies and development pathways for the establishment of a vertically integrated BAM business in Queensland.²⁰

On 17 March 2025, Lithium Energy announced that it had entered agreements with two vendors to acquire a 100% interest in 10 contiguous exploration tenements (adjacent to and surrounding the historic Mt Morgan Gold Mine) in Central Queensland to create the significant new district-scale Capricorn Gold-Copper Belt Project, which Lithium Energy considers to be prospective for gold, porphyry copper and volcanic massive sulphide (VMS) mineralisation.²¹ The acquisition will occur in two tranches (51% ownership on satisfaction of various conditions and 49% on satisfaction of various conditions 21 months thereafter) in consideration of staged payments to the vendors totalling ~$3 million, a series of contingent payments (of up to $2.5 million) on achievement of defined exploration success and feasibility study milestones, a 2% NSR royalty and a $4 million expenditure commitment on the tenements over a period of up to 21 months. The first tranche (51%) acquisition was completed on 11 July 2025 and the second tranche (49%) acquisition is to be expected on or before April 2027.²²

On 5 June 2025, Lithium Energy announced that it had staked mineral claims in Utah, United States (the White Plains Project), which Lithium Energy considers to be prospective for lithium brine mineralisation.²³

On 25 October 2024²⁴, ASX determined that Lithium Energy did not have a sufficient level of operations to warrant the continued quotation of its securities in the context of the agreement to dispose of its main undertaking (being the Solaroz Project) and suspended Lithium Energy's securities from trading on ASX²⁵. Lithium Energy has advised that it is actively engaging with the ASX for the lifting of the company's suspension on ASX and that the company expects that its suspension from ASX will remain in place until it has satisfied the ASX that it has a sufficient level of operations to justify the reinstatement of its shares to quotation. Lithium Energy has advised that the company's efforts are currently focused on meeting ASX's criteria for the reinstatement of its shares to quotation namely undertaking substantive exploration, evaluation and development activities in relation to its resource projects.²⁶

Strike Executive Director, William Johnson, is the Executive Chairman of Lithium Energy and Strike Executive Chairman, Farooq Khan, is an Executive Director of Lithium Energy.

Further information about Lithium Energy's resource projects and activities are contained in their ASX releases, including as follows:

Other Projects

Strike may also pursue other investment opportunities in the resource sector in Australia and overseas if it is in the interests of the Company and shareholders, in conjunction with the results of its Apurimac operations in Peru and the relative prospects of any new proposed project.

ASX has noted that it may require Strike to re-comply with Chapters 1 and 2 of the Listing Rules in the event Strike proposes to undertake an acquisition or transaction that warrants the application of Chapter 11 of the Listing Rules.

Further information on Strike's activities and operations during the financial year are also contained in its Quarterly Activities and Cash Flow Reports lodged on ASX dated:

MATERIAL BUSINESS RISKS

Strike's exploration and development operations are subject to the normal risks of mineral exploration and development, and any revenues will be subject to factors beyond Strike's control. The material business risks that may affect Strike are summarised below:

Exploration Risk: Strike's resource projects are at various stages of exploration, evaluation and development. There is no assurance that future exploration will result in the discovery of an economic resource or reserve or that it can be economically exploited. Future exploration activities may be affected by a range of factors including geological conditions, limitations on activities due to seasonal weather patterns or adverse weather conditions, unanticipated operational and technical difficulties, difficulties in commissioning and operating plant and equipment, mechanical failure or plant breakdown, unanticipated metallurgical problems which may affect extraction costs/recovery rates, industrial and environmental accidents, industrial disputes, unexpected shortages and increases in the costs of consumables, spare parts, plant, equipment and personnel, local communities/indigenous and existing land/lease holder stakeholder engagements, changing government regulations and many other factors beyond the control of Strike. Exploration and evaluation costs are based on certain assumptions in relation to the nature, method and timing of these activities, which are subject to significant uncertainties and, accordingly, the actual costs may materially differ. Cost estimates and the underlying assumptions may not be realised in practice, which may materially and adversely affect Strike's financial performance and or position.

Resource Estimation Risk: Resource estimates are expressions of judgement based on knowledge, experience and industry practice. These estimates were appropriate when made but may change significantly when new information becomes available. Resource estimates which depend on interpretations may require adjustment. Adjustments to resource estimates could affect Strike's future plans and ultimately its financial performance. Mineral and commodity price fluctuations, as well as increased production costs or reduced throughput and/or recovery rates, may render resources containing relatively lower grades uneconomic and may materially affect resource estimations.

Title Risk: Mining tenements are granted subject to a number of conditions, compliance with which is necessary to ensure continued title to those tenements. These conditions may include payment of annual rents, meeting prescribed expenditure and/or work commitments, and annual reporting requirements. Failure to meet tenement conditions may cause loss of title to tenure and/or the imposition of fines. Mining tenements may only be granted for a specified term and may be subject to periodic renewal or extension. In some cases, mining tenements may only be renewed or extended a limited number of times or for a limited period of time. After completing their permitted number of renewals and extensions of term, an exploration tenement may expire at the end of its respective term, unless an application to convert the tenement to a mining licence (or another form of mining tenure) is lodged and successfully granted. The renewal or extension of the term of a granted tenement or grant of a tenement application is also subject to the discretion of the relevant government official/authority or their authorised delegates (as applicable) and may be subject to renewal/grant conditions. Renewal/grant conditions may include increased expenditure and/or work commitments or compulsory relinquishment of tenement areas. Strike cannot guarantee that renewals or extensions of its mining tenements (where applicable) will be granted on a timely basis, or at all. The inability to obtain the grant of tenements, or renewals or extensions, and the imposition of new conditions, or the inability or failure to meet any conditions may adversely affect the operations, financial position and/or performance of Strike.

Feasibility and Development Risks: There is risk associated with the successful commercial exploitation of resource discoveries. Such exploitation involves securing necessary approvals from relevant authorities that may require conditions to be satisfied and/or the exercise of discretions by such authorities. It may or may not be possible for such conditions to be satisfied in a timely manner or at all. Advancing exploitation may involve the participation of other parties/stakeholders whose interests and objectives may differ from Strike's. There is a complex, multidisciplinary process involved to evaluate and assess development pathways and undertake feasibility-related studies to support a development proposal. Evaluations/assessments and studies and associated technical works may not achieve the results expected. Even if supported by a positive feasibility study, a project may not be successfully developed for a range of technical, commercial and or financial reasons.

Commodity Pricing Risk: The commercial prospects of Strike (in relation to the development of its current iron ore projects) is dependent principally upon the demand for iron ore and steel products, in particular in China, which is the predominant export market for junior iron ore producers.

Key Personnel: In formulating its exploration and evaluation programmes, feasibility-related studies and development strategies, Strike relies on the experience and expertise of its directors, senior executives and other senior management. There is a risk that key personnel may leave their employment, which may adversely affect the business, at least in the short term. Recruiting and retaining qualified, skilled and experienced key personnel in the minerals/commodities sectors and geography in which Strike operates may also be challenging in a strong and competitive resources sector.

Future Funding: Strike's ongoing exploration, evaluation and development activities will require substantial further funding in the future. Any additional equity capital may be dilutive to shareholders and may be undertaken at lower issue prices than the current market share price. Debt financing, if available, may involve restrictive covenants which limit Strike's operations and business strategy. There is no assurance that appropriate funding, if and when needed, will be available on terms satisfactory to Strike or at all. The inability to obtain funding will adversely affect Strike and may result in some or all of its projects not proceeding or their scale and/or scope being altered or defaults in licences or permits or agreements occurring, which, if not remedied, could result in forfeiture of its tenements.

Foreign Jurisdiction: Strike holds its interest in the Apurimac Project in Peru through its 100% shareholdings in Peruvian registered companies. The overseas companies are subject to risks normally associated with the conduct of business in foreign countries. Risks pertaining to Peru may include, among other things, political risk, economic risk, disruptions to logistics, access to infrastructure and services (water, power and gas), labour disputes, civil disturbances and crime, changes in law or policies, opposition to mining from environmental or other non-governmental organisations or changes in political attitudes towards mining activities.

Foreign Exchange Risk: The expenditure of Strike is and will be in Australian, United States and Peruvian currencies, exposing the Company to fluctuations and volatility of the rates of exchange between the Australian dollar, United States dollar and Peruvian Soles as determined in international markets. Strike does not currently undertake any hedging of foreign currency items, however as operations develop and expand, more sophisticated foreign exchange risk management strategies may be adopted.

Access Risk: There may be areas of Strike's projects over which indigenous rights exist or are claimed by indigenous owners. Similarly, Strike's tenements may be wholly or partially over the same ground as freehold (or local equivalent) or leasehold land. As such, Strike's ability to gain access to the tenements or to progress from the exploration phase to the development and mining phases of operations, may require reaching agreement with these stakeholders to facilitate access and development, which is not assured, on terms satisfactory to Strike, or at all. Negotiations with stakeholders may also result in a delay with the development of Strike's projects.

Regulatory Risk: Strike's operations are subject to various Federal, State/Provincial and local laws and regulations, including those relating to exploration, development and mining permit and licence requirements, industrial relations, environment, land use, royalties, water, native title/indigenous and cultural heritage, mine safety and occupational work, health and safety. Approvals, licences and permits required to comply with such rules may be subject to the discretion of the applicable government officials/authorities. No assurance can be given that Strike will be successful in maintaining such authorisations in full force and effect without modification or revocation. To the extent such approvals are required and not retained or obtained in a timely manner or at all, Strike may be curtailed or prohibited from continuing or proceeding with exploration and production. Strike's business and results of operations could be adversely affected if applications lodged for relevant licences are not granted.

Environmental Risk: The operations and activities of Strike are subject to environmental laws and regulations. Strike is unable to predict the effect of additional environmental laws and regulations which may be adopted in the future, including whether any such laws or regulations would materially increase Strike's cost of doing business or affect its operations in any area. However, there can be no assurances that new environmental laws, regulations or stricter enforcement policies, once implemented, will not oblige Strike to incur significant expenses and undertake significant investments which could have a material adverse effect on Strike's business, financial condition and performance.

Climate Change Risk: The operations and activities of Strike may be subject to local or international compliance regulations related to climate change mitigation efforts, specific taxation or penalties for carbon emissions or environmental damage, and other possible restraints on industry that may further impact Strike and its profitability. Climate change may also cause certain physical and environmental risks that cannot be predicted by Strike, including events such as increased severity of weather patterns, incidence of extreme weather events and longer-term physical risks such as shifting climate pattern.

Pandemic and other Public Health Risks: Future health pandemics and other possible outbreaks of viruses/disease may have a significant adverse effect on Strike's business. The spread of such diseases amongst management, employees, contractors, suppliers and logistic networks, as well as any health-related government-imposed quarantine and isolation requirements, may reduce the ability to operate and have detrimental financial implications. More broadly, Strike may also be affected by the macroeconomic effects and likely ensuing financial volatility in the economies where the Company operates.

SIGNIFICANT CHANGES IN THE STATE OF AFFAIRS

There have been no significant changes in the state of affairs of Strike, save as otherwise disclosed in this Directors' Report or the financial statements and notes thereto.

FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS

Strike intends to (subject to, amongst other matters, market conditions, Strike's financial position and commitments and the relative prospects of Strike's resource projects):

- (a) Advance the evaluation and development of its Apurimac Iron Ore Project in Peru.
- (b) Pursue other investment opportunities in the resource sector in Australia and overseas if it is in the interests of the Company and shareholders, in conjunction with the results of its Apurimac operations in Peru and the relative prospects of any new proposed project.

The likely outcomes of these activities depend on a range of technical and economic factors (including underlying commodity prices) and also industry, geographic and other strategy specific issues. In the opinion of the Directors, it is not possible or appropriate to make a prediction on the results of these activities, the future course of markets or the forecast of the likely results of Strike's activities.

ENVIRONMENTAL REGULATIONS

Strike holds mineral tenements/concession licences issued by the relevant mining and environmental protection authorities of the various countries in which it operates (from time to time). In the course of its mineral exploration, evaluation and development activities, Strike adheres to licence conditions and environmental regulations imposed upon it by various authorities (as applicable). Strike has complied with all licence conditions and environmental requirements (as applicable) during the financial year and up to the date of this report. There have been no known material breaches of Strike's licence conditions and environmental regulations during the financial year and up to the date of this report.

(2) Remuneration Policy

The Board (with guidance from the Remuneration and Nomination Committee) determines the remuneration structure of all Key Management Personnel having regard to Strike's strategic objectives, scale and scope of operations and other relevant factors, including experience and qualifications, length of service, market practice (including available data concerning remuneration paid by other listed companies in particular companies of comparable size and nature within the resources sector in which Strike operates), the duties and accountability of Key Management Personnel and the objective of maintaining a balanced Board which has appropriate expertise and experience, at a reasonable cost to the Company.

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee: A purpose of the Committee is to assist the Executive Chairman and the Board to adopt and implement a remuneration system that is required to attract, retain and motivate the personnel who will enable the Company to achieve long-term success. In carrying out this 'remuneration function', the Committee's key responsibilities are to:

- make recommendations to the Board on the specific benefits to be provided to the Managing Director/Executive Directors within the policy
- conduct an annual review of Non-Executive Directors' fees and determining whether the limit on the Non-Executive Directors' fee pool remains appropriate, and
- assist the Executive Chairman to determine the remuneration (including equity-based remuneration) of 'Senior Management' (being executive direct reports to the Executive Chairman and other senior employees) and advise on those determinations.

Any Non-Executive Directors of the Company can be paid a maximum aggregate base remuneration of $500,000²⁹ per annum inclusive of employer superannuation contributions where applicable, in such quantum and to be divided as the Board determines appropriate.

The Board has determined the following fixed cash remuneration for current Key Management Personnel as follows (as at 30 June 2025):

- (a) Mr Farooq Khan (Executive Chairman) – a base salary of $300,000 per annum plus employer superannuation contributions;

- (c) Mr William Johnson (Executive-Director) – a base salary of $120,000 per annum plus employer superannuation contributions.

Special Exertions and Reimbursements: Pursuant to the Company's Constitution, each Director is also entitled to receive:

- In respect of Non-Executive Directors, payment for the performance of extra services or the making of special exertions for the benefit of the Company (at the request of and with the concurrence of the Board).

Short-Term Benefits: Relevant Key Management Personnel have an opportunity to earn annual short-term incentive (STI) cash amounts if predefined key performance indicators (KPIs) are achieved. The STI/KPIs are reviewed annually (where applicable). No STI benefits have been set for or paid to Key Management Personnel during the financial year.

Long-Term Benefits: The Company does not have any long-term incentive (LTI) cash bonus schemes (or equivalent) in place for Key Management Personnel. The Company reserves the right to implement LTI remuneration measures for Key Management Personnel if appropriate in the future.

Equity-Based Benefits: There were no equity-based benefits granted to Key Management Personnel during the financial year. There were no shares issued as a result of the exercise of options issued to Key Management Personnel during the financial year. The Company may propose the issue of securities to Key Management Personnel in the future (as an equity-based incentive benefit), which will be put to shareholders for approval at that time (as required under the ASX Listing Rules and/or the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), as applicable).

Securities Incentive Plan: The Company adopted a Securities Incentive Plan (the Plan or SIP), which was approved by shareholders at its AGM held on 4 December 2020. The purpose of the Plan is to:

- (a) assist in the reward, retention, and motivation of "Eligible Participants" (which includes employees, Executive and Non-Executive Directors and contractors – not limited to Key Management Personnel);
- (b) link the reward of Eligible Participants to shareholder value creation; and
- (c) align the interests of Eligible Participants with shareholders of the Company by providing an opportunity to Eligible Participants to receive an equity interest in the Company in the form of securities (which includes a share, a right to a share, an option over an issued or unissued security and a convertible security).

A summary of the Plan is in Annexure A to the Notice of Annual General Meeting and Explanatory Statement dated 20 October 2020 and released on ASX on 4 November 2020.

No SIP Options were granted to Key Management Personnel during the financial year.

Post-Employment Benefits: The Company does not presently provide retirement benefits to Key Management Personnel other than compulsory superannuation contributions. The Company notes that shareholder approval is required where a Company proposes to make a "termination payment" (for example, a payment in lieu of notice, a payment for a post-employment restraint and payments made as a result of the automatic or accelerated vesting of share based payments) in excess of one year's "base salary" (defined as the average base salary over the previous 3 years) to a director or any person who holds a managerial or executive office.

Performance-Related Benefits and Financial Performance of Company: Save for any applicable STI(s), LTI(s) or equity-based benefits that may be provided to Key Management Personnel, the remuneration of Key Management Personnel is fixed, is not dependent on the satisfaction of a performance condition and is unrelated to the Company's performance.

8. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Consolidated Entity's financial instruments consist of deposits with banks, receivables and payables. The Consolidated Entity's financial instruments are subject to market (which includes interest rate and foreign exchange risk), credit and liquidity risks.

The Board is responsible for the overall internal control framework (which includes risk management) but no cost-effective internal control system will preclude all errors and irregularities. The system is based, in part, on the appointment of suitably qualified management personnel. The effectiveness of the system is continually reviewed by management and at least annually by the Board.

The financial receivables and payables of the Consolidated Entity in the table below are due or payable within 30 days. The Consolidated Entity holds the following financial assets and liabilities:

8. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT (continued)

(a) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value and/or future cash flows from a financial instrument or asset will fluctuate as a result of changes in market factors. Market risk comprises of foreign exchange risk from fluctuations in foreign currencies and interest rate risk from fluctuations in market interest rates.

(i) Commodity price risk

The Consolidated Entity is exposed to commodity price risk whereby fluctuations in the prices of commodities (i.e. iron ore), driven by market factors, can affect its financial performance. Volatile fluctuations in commodity prices creates significant business challenges that affects credit availability, production costs and product pricing. This price volatility creates an imperative for the Consolidated Entity to manage the impact of commodity price fluctuations across its value chain to effectively manage its financial performance and profitability.

(ii) Foreign exchange risk

The Consolidated Entity operates internationally and is exposed to foreign exchange risk arising from various currency exposures, primarily with respect to the US dollar and Peruvian Nuevo Soles. Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions and recognised assets and liabilities denominated in a currency that is not the Consolidated Entity's functional currency. The risk is measured using sensitivity analysis and cash flow forecasting. The Consolidated Entity has a policy of generally not hedging foreign exchange risk and therefore has not entered into any hedging against movements in foreign currencies against the Australian dollar, including forward exchange contracts, as at the reporting date and is currently fully exposed to foreign exchange risk. The Consolidated Entity's exposure to foreign exchange risk expressed in US dollars at the reporting date are as follows:

	2025 USD	2024 USD
Cash and cash equivalents	249,987	55,746
Payables	(115,702)	(149,142)
Net financial assets/(liabilities)	134,285	(93,396)

The Consolidated Entity has performed a sensitivity analysis on its exposure to exchange risk. Management's assessment is based upon an analysis of current and future market positions. The analysis (below) demonstrates the effect on the current year results and equity if the Australian dollar strengthened or declined by 10% against the foreign currency detailed above.

	Impact on post-tax profit		Impact on equity
	2025	2024	2025	2024
	$	$	$	$
Increase 10%	13,429	(9,340)	13,429	(9,340)

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 30 June 2025

(a) Market risk (continued)

(iii) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the value of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in market interest rates. The Consolidated Entity's exposure to market risk for changes in interest rates relate primarily to investments held in interest bearing instruments. The weighted average interest rate of the cash at bank for the year for the table below is 3.7% (2024: 4.19%).

The table (below) illustrates the sensitivity of profit and equity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates based on observation of current market conditions. The calculations are based on a change in the average market interest rate and the financial instruments that are sensitive to changes in interest rates.

	Impact on post-tax profit		Impact on equity
	2025	2024	2025	2024
	$	$	$	$
Increase by 25bps	9,577	16,787	9,577	16,787
Decrease by 25bps	(9,577)	(16,787)	(9,577)	(16,787)

(b) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Consolidated Entity will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities. The Consolidated Entity's non-cash assets can be realised to meet trade and other payables arising in the normal course of business. The financial liabilities disclosed in the table above have a maturity obligation of not more than 30 days.

(c) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty under a financial instrument will default (in whole or in part) on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Consolidated Entity. Credit risk arises from cash and cash equivalents and deposits with banks and financial institutions, including outstanding receivables and committed transactions. Concentrations of credit risk are minimised primarily by management carrying out all market transactions through recognised and creditworthy brokers and the monitoring of receivable balances. The Consolidated Entity's business activities do not necessitate the requirement for collateral as a means of mitigating the risk of financial loss from defaults.

The credit quality of the financial assets are neither past due nor impaired and can be assessed by reference to external credit ratings or to historical information about counterparty default rates. The maximum exposure to credit risk at reporting date is the carrying amount of the financial assets as summarised below:

Cash and cash equivalents
AA-	3,783,248	6,658,290
No external credit rating available	47,488	56,709

No external credit rating available	559,317	585,252

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the year ended 30 June 2025

9. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Fair value hierarchy

AASB 13 (Fair Value Measurement) requires disclosure of fair value measurements by level of the following fair value measurement hierarchy:

- (i) Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- (ii) Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (as prices) or indirectly (derived from prices); and
- (iii) Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
	$	$	$	$
Listed securities at fair value
2025	2,880	-	-	2,880
2024	3,000	-	-	3,000

There have been no transfers between the levels of the fair value hierarchy during the financial year.

(a) Valuation techniques

The fair value of the listed securities traded in active markets is based on closing bid prices at the end of the reporting period. These investments are included in Level 1.

The fair value of any assets that are not traded in an active market are determined using certain valuation techniques. The valuation techniques maximise the use of observable market data where it is available, or independent valuation and rely as little as possible on entity specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in Level 2. If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in Level 3.

(b) Fair values of other financial assets and liabilities

		2025	2024
	Note	$	$
Cash and cash equivalents	7	3,830,736	6,714,999
Receivables	10	559,317	585,252

Payables	12	(593,984)	(883,074)
		3,796,069	6,417,177

Due to their short-term nature, the carrying amounts of cash, current receivables and current payables is assumed to approximate their fair value.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

24. CONTINGENCIES (continued)

(a) Deferred Payments from Settlement Agreement Relating to Apurimac Ferrum SAC

Pursuant to a settlement agreement dated 30 December 2012 whereby the Consolidated Entity acquired the (50%) balance of equity interest in Apurimac Ferrum SAC (AF) (the holder of the Apurimac Project) from D&C Pesca SAC, the Consolidated Entity has a series of deferred payment obligations as outlined below.

The Consolidated Entity has payment obligations if certain milestones are achieved, as follows:

- (i) Resource Milestone Payment: US$2 million on the delineation of at least 500 Mt of JORC Mineral Resources at an average grade of at least 55% Fe with at least 275 Mt of contained iron having an average grade of at least 52.5% Fe, on the Apurimac Project mineral concessions.
- (ii) Approvals Milestone Payment: Up to US$3 million on AF receiving all formal government environmental and community approvals for the construction and operation of an iron ore mine and required infrastructure with a design capacity of at least 10Mtpa of iron ore product, relating to the Apurimac Project mineral concessions.
- (iii) Construction Milestone Payment: Up to US$5 million on formal approval of the AF Board to commence construction of an iron ore project or the commencement of bulk earthworks for an iron ore mine or processing plant, in either case with a design capacity of at least 10Mtpa of iron ore product, relating to the Apurimac Project mineral concessions.

The Consolidated Entity has royalty payment obligations as follows:

- (i) 1.5% of the net profits from sales of iron ore mined and iron ore products produced from the Apurimac Project mineral concessions.
- (ii) 2% of the proceeds of sales of other metals (on a net smelter return basis) mined from the Apurimac Project mineral concessions.

Due to the inherent uncertainty surrounding the achievement and timing of the above milestones/royalty triggers, the Consolidated Entity regards these future payment obligations as contingencies.

For further background details, refer also to SRK ASX Announcement dated 31 December 2012: Strike Moves to 100% Ownership of AF.

(b) Legal Disputes Over Peru Mineral Concessions

The Consolidated Entity has successfully defended against a number of legal actions and appeals and is subject to a threatened further action by several Peruvian parties (that have had a contractual relationship with AF) relating to the Consolidated Entity's mineral concessions in Peru. Whilst there still remain some outstanding actions and appeals and a threat of further action, the Consolidated Entity considers that the actions and appeals are without merit and will all be eventually dismissed, consistent with previous decisions by the relevant Peruvian authorities, and that the threat of further actions is groundless.

For further background details, refer also to SRK ASX Announcement dated 1 May 2014: Strike Wins Millenium Arbitration Case in Peru.

25. EVENTS OCCURRING AFTER THE REPORTING PERIOD

No matter or circumstance has arisen since the end of the financial year that significantly affected, or may significantly affect, the operations of the Consolidated Entity, the results of those operations, or the state of affairs of the Consolidated Entity in future financial periods.
